Developing effective communication strategies, best practices and key resources across the UMTC campus to:

1. support undergraduate international students in accomplishing their academic and professional goals
2. actively engage undergraduate international students in the university community.

Achieving Success through: Communication, Coordination, Consultation

Student Outcomes:
- Process improvements
- Enhance orientation content based on academic and classroom culture differences
- New student course development
- Outreach and programming:
  - Plagiarism
  - Utilization of resources
  - Student engagement
- Managing communications and expectations

Adviser and Staff Outcomes:
- Collaboration and consultation across colleges and departments on new initiatives
- Guide for working with new students
- Trainings and professional development opportunities
- Resources for faculty and staff support
- Research and discussion on the international student experience
- Managing communications and expectations

Michael Anderson, Minnesota English Language Program
Amy Burger Sanchez, College of Continuing Education
Theresa Ganglghassemloeu and Beth Isensee, International Student and Scholar Services