

JUDD FELLOWS EXPO

October 10, 2017

McNamara Alumni Center

Welcome

Meredith McQuaid

Associate Vice President and Dean of International Programs

Remarks

Anna Martin — 2007 Judd Fellow (M.S.W. '08)

Co-Founder and Director of Client Engagement, Picture Impact

Student Presentations

Select 2017 Judd Fellows will briefly share experiences from their time abroad:

- Ada Breitenbucher, Medical School
- Travis Fried, College of Liberal Arts
- Isaac Giron and Erin Wiedenman, Humphrey School of Public Affairs
- Sara Lederman, School of Public Health
- Sara Zanussi, College of Education and Human Development

Closing

Diane Young

Director of Development, Global Programs and Strategy Alliance

Reception and Poster Session

*Special thanks to the Judd Expo Advisory Committee:
Scott Appelwick, Hope Esparolini, Mary Lou Judd Carpenter, Kris Mortensen, and Susan Stuart*

GPSAlliance

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Erica Berry

College of Liberal Arts
M.F.A. — Creative Nonfiction, Creative Writing
United Kingdom
Berry conducted research at the UK Wolf Conservation Trust (UKWCT), an education-based nonprofit that hosts scholars for research and observation of on-site wolves.

Ada Breitenbucher

Medical School
M.D.
India
Breitenbucher spent four weeks in Delhi, India, with a Child Family Health International program focusing on public health delivery innovations and community medicine.

Pratibha Chauhan

College of Design
M.Arch., M.S. — Architecture, Research Practices
Finland
Chauhan conducted research to understand ways thermal, chemical, and design modifications can enhance durability of conventionally unusable wood species at Aalto University's Department of Architecture.

Jennifer Compton

Humphrey School of Public Affairs **
M.D.P. — Program Evaluation
Haiti
Compton interned with the Global Deaf Connection and Haiti Deaf Academy on a project to standardize Haitian Sign Language education and professionalize sign language interpretation.

Travis Fried

College of Liberal Arts
M.G.I.S.— Public Participatory GIS, Open-Source/
Crowdsourced Data, International Ethnography,
Human Rights
Nepal
Fried interned with Kathmandu Living Labs, a technology-based NGO, on their Prepare Pokhara project team. Fried's primary responsibilities included collecting data to identify vulnerable populations and areas in need of immediate disaster preparation initiatives.

Isaac Giron

Humphrey School of Public Affairs **
M.D.P. — Gender Equality and Education
Nepal
Along with Judd Fellow Wiedenman, Giron collaborated with the National Trust for Nature Conservation and local Community Forest User Groups in determining the feasibility of expanding ecotourism.

Kathryn Huether

College of Liberal Arts
M.A. — Musicology, Holocaust Studies, & Music
Germany
Huether's project assessed music's employment in Holocaust film documentaries, museum exhibitions, and memorial representation, and how its effect shapes our perceptions of the memory and history being presented.

Sara Lederman

School of Public Health
M.P.H. — Public Health Policy & Administration
Switzerland
Lederman interned in the Cancer and Non-Communicable Diseases Programme at the World Health Organization and participated in WHO's Summer Internship Program in Geneva.

Isabel Marsh-Silva (Judd Alumni Fellow*)

Humphrey School of Public Affairs **
M.D.P. — Sustainable Agriculture & Program
Evaluation
Tanzania
Marsh-Silva designed and conducted an exploration of the community's needs in collaboration with a team of graduate students and Educate Tanzania (ETI), a Minnesota-based nonprofit that works toward the socio-economic transformation of Karagwe, Tanzania.

Jamie Nichols

Medical School
D.P.T. — Physical Therapy
Ecuador

Nichols interned at Fundación CIMAS, at an outpatient rehabilitation clinic in Quito, and at a rural pediatric clinic with access to hippotherapy (therapy with horses) and aquatic therapy.

Megan Tomamichel

College of Food, Agricultural, and Natural Resource Sciences
M.S. — Fisheries and Aquatic Biology
Chile

Tomamichel applied a unique aggregate model that predicts the impact of disease in aquatic populations to aquaculture facilities in Chile.

Erin Wiedenman

Humphrey School of Public Affairs
M.D.P. — International Education, Sustainable Development
Nepal

Along with Judd Fellow Giron, Wiedenman collaborated with the National Trust for Nature Conservation and local Community Forest User Groups in determining the feasibility of expanding ecotourism.

Sara Zanussi

College of Education and Human Development
C.I.D.E. — Educational Development, Evaluation
Colombia

Zanussi conducted qualitative research at two music programs in Colombia that used ensemble-based music to improve the lives of vulnerable children.

Jonathan Clayton

College of Veterinary Medicine
D.V.M. — Veterinary Medicine
Madagascar and Rwanda

Clayton worked with a network of primatologists at field sites in Madagascar and Rwanda to experience both sides of international One Health Research. One Health represents a concept of the inextricable link between human, animal, and environmental health.

Amanda Evans

Medical School
D.P.T. — Physical Therapy
Italy

Evans conducted an 11-week internship in two locations in Italy. She worked with advanced robotics designed to aid with gait in people with spinal cord injuries. This is a unique part of the internship because this is not available to most people in the United States.

*Follow the Judd on Facebook at:
facebook.com/JuddFellowship*

 The Judd Alumni Fellowship is made possible by generous support of Judd Fellow alumni, with matching from Carol and Cliff Stiles.*

 The M.D.P. is jointly administered by the Humphrey School and the Interdisciplinary Center for the Study of Global Change and spans several academic disciplines across the University.*

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Core funding for the Judd Fellowship is provided by an annual grant from the Walter H. Judd Fund of The Minneapolis Foundation with matching funds from the University of Minnesota's Global Programs and Strategy Alliance. This core funding is enhanced by the generous support from individuals and institutions.

Gifts made Sept. 1, 2016–Oct. 1, 2017

Walter H. Judd Fellowship Fund

Thomas Anderson & Kathryn Hagen
Scott M. Appelwick & Edward H. Sootsman

Ragui A. Assaad

Helen R. & Paul F. Bowlin, M.D.

Ann P. Buran

Mary Lou Judd Carpenter

The Honorable Linda & Dr. Henry Cohen

Jack W. Cole

Charles M Denny, Jr

Ernest F. Dorn III & Mary L. Dorn

Hope Esparolini

Dr. Stanley M. & Luella G. Goldberg

Sherry Gray

Head Family Foundation

Sally L. Kamps

Sandra Y. Klapperich

Janet C. Leslie

Barrs S. & Hollis H. Lewis

Charles R. & Janice B. Lloyd

H. William Lurton

Janet Mattox

Dick and Joyce McFarland

Eleanor Judd Quinn

Lyall A. & Inez M. Schwarzkopf

Carol & Dr. Cliff Stiles

Don & Leslie Stiles

Susan K. Stuart

Kay Thomas & James Rustad

William Toscano, Jr. & Ms. Diane Toscano

Carol B. & Lynn G. Truesdell III

Gloria G. & George D. Wallace

Maxine H. Wallin

Gabriel P. & Yvonne Weisberg

Diane C. & Nevin D. Young

Walter H. Judd Fund of The Minneapolis Foundation

Judd Alumni Fellowship Fund*

Daniel J. Backman '05

Genya V. Dana '05

Anne D. Jensen '16

Joel P. Larson '08

Gunda Luss '06

Meghan Mason '09

Jeffrey C. McCullough '09

Sarah M. Sevcik '08

Aimee E. Thostenson '02

David K. Uejio '05

 Date indicates year of Judd Fellowship*

Matching Gifts

Hormel Foods Corporation

Margaret A. Cargill Foundation

Pentair Foundation

Bequests

Carol & Dr. Cliff Stiles

Thank you to the University of Minnesota Libraries for donating the printing of the posters.

Driven.
The Campaign for a Global U

Make a philanthropic investment in the Judd Fellowship today!

- Make an annual or monthly gift.
- Endow a named Judd Fellowship.
- Sponsor an event: networking lunch, Judd Expo, or poster session.
- Leave a legacy. Consider a major gift or include the Judd Fellowship in your estate plan.

Gifts in support of the Judd Fellowships can be made online or by mail. Go to: z.umn.edu/judd

For more information or to discuss other ways to support the Judd Fellowships, contact Diane Young at 612-624-8819 or young054@umn.edu.